

OM SRI SAI RAM

PUBLIC ACTIVITIES -FOR VARIOUS LEVELS OF AUDIENCE

2014-15

CONCEPT- APPROACH AND CONTENT

- The whole concept of this programme is to target a large section of non devotee/Devotee or non informed and ill informed section of the society. Preferably a section of professionals who have influential positions and decision and policy making status. A kind of awareness programme on reality, truth and practice.
- A programme also to focus on some of the questions the public at large have in their minds after the media negative war impact on the organization and consequent general public opinion. We could address this directly and indirectly also.
- To high light on the activity of Vidya Vahini-Universities, Super specialty hospitals-Drinking water projects and various important nationwide services. Projection of numbers with Video support.
- Ultimately, to make all the subjects lead to spiritual progress as an undercurrent or to have a spillover effect on the audience. This is the take home value oriented package for a day to day life based on Indian culture and spirituality and Bhagawan Baba's teachings.
- To make the whole concept to be delivered in a capsule that which to be practiced in the life of Teachers-students-professionals and normal citizens of all categories and thereby derive joy and happiness with a meaningful purpose of life. Also to high light, not to lay importance on dependence on material based life.
- Finally, we should make this as an ongoing continuous approach not merely for the 90th birth day event alone.

TOPICS AND CONTENT

Important Points of Interest to be taken up in the Speakers Address for Different Levels of People.

These are mostly from Bhagawan's interactions with us at different points of time. Some of them are published and some of them are not. Interestingly they are applicable to all classes and categories with different magnitude, context and direction.

TEACHERS' ROLES.

- All teachers will certainly be discharging their responsibilities of the syllabus from the examination pass point of view and their job point of view. There has never been a problem in completion of fixed syllabus.
- All or at least most of students are likely to pursue their careers to a lucrative end-but will they be good citizens with love, care and social responsibility?
- They must teach children for their life and not for living alone. It is mostly education-Where are moral values and Educare?
- Must teach how to respect parents and teachers, women and elders-why and how?
- Must be taught to love, care and respect support people who are younger to them and less positioned-Must be taught to treat people with respect and share things with people who are equal to you. Must be taught to revere-respect, admire, learn and honor people who are elder and better placed.
- Teach them that all their actions both good and bad will have a reaction with the same intensity back to them—Like a rubber ball thrown on the wall-like the Newton's law—compare with the theory of Karma....Therefore they must always be doing good-seeing good and acting good.
- Teach them the value of caring and sharing things they process with others and specifically less privileged.This is very important in today's context as it is very different from what we were, when going to municipal schools with bare foot. Provide them with classic examples of great people of the past and current achievers.
- Teach them GOD as a cosmic power-Not as an imaginary person living in heaven, a holy place or a temple-The power similar to the energy of the cosmic Sun and planets that are ever in equilibrium. Tell them that every living and non living is part of that cosmic energy. Teach them that you, me and we are operated by that energy only-Tell them that this cosmic energy has several names, but basically it is the same in all and therefore we should respect all people as equal under all circumstances.
- Compare this energy concept with love that binds all of us and therefore it is to be exchanged, respected and adored.
- Teach them the equality and common factors of all religions and respect towards them.
- Teach them to trust that power/energy in all, so that their can never be a negative thought-make them believe that they can always do the impossible.... With that trust and faith. Think positive always. This is the scientific way of teaching the power invisible and which is the truth as well.

- Teach them the art of reading-writing and speaking-In this regard parents should guide them at home.
- Teach them to speak softly-politely and obligingly-Not to waste their energy in loud unnecessary talk that drains them.
- Teach them not to speak lies-tell them how easy to speak truth and how difficult and fearful to continue speaking lie after lie for cover up.
- Teach them the art of conservation of natural resources like water, power at home and outside carefully-as energy is cosmic and is God as well.
- Teach them the art of preservation of the environment and responsibility of control on pollution in a variety of means at home first and outside next.
- Teach them on eating habits-nutrition and ill effects of consuming wrong foods-classify them.
- Teach them social responsibilities which include traffic management and adherence to safety regulation—respect law-Make them believe their safety is their own responsibility and not some body's.
- Teach parents to check on their children on all matters of general disciplines as described.
- Teach them to love and respect their mother land. Tell them about the great people's sacrifices for the mother land.
- Teach them to have proper goals in their lives with the support and guidance of their teachers and parents with a plan of action. Work towards those aspirations and goals—their will be a success for sure. There is no substitute for hard work is the motto.
- Teach them the ways and means to live with what we have and not to clamor for things that are beyond the means. Simple stories and the effects.
- Teach them -Introduce and encourage them at a young age to participate in arts-culture, useful hobbies, sports and service to the poor and needy.
- Teach them the ill effects and consequences of getting in to the social web sites like the internet and face book etc.-This is the biggest and largest threat of the present era.
- Explain to them the dangers lurking around these habits. Parent's controls of these matters should also be subject matter when speaking to adults as in professionals-students etc
- Teach them the art of operation of banks-financial management-savings-living-life style-sports-health and hygiene-social responsibilities-What is tax? Why pay? For what purpose etc.

- Talk to them on animal care and love for animals. Make them familiar with animals by touch and speech.
- Use technology to feel the concepts of science, spirituality and arts- they are available in plenty.
- Explain to them the difference and commonalities between spirituality, religion and science.
- Importance of prayers to their chosen belief. The prayer directed to their well being and society at large.

PROFESSIONALS-PRIVATE AND GOVERNMENT ETC

- For a successful professional or otherwise a leader must have the following whether at home-office or in the market place.
- Must have immense passion for the mission they are engaged whether paid or not!
- Mere passion will destroy you if you do not have the knowledge to execute appropriately with a plan of action and support.
- It is not enough to have passion and knowledge-but must perform, act and execute with love, care, concern, truth, commitment, patience and forbearance in all that you do.
- It is not fully enough only with the above-but must have some sacrifice too in the process.
- A person should have same approach at home-office and market place with speech-action and deed in unison. Otherwise it leads to stress and disease.
- Show honor, respect and admiration to the people above you and, respect regards, love and concern to your subordinates not only in official work but also share their home front problems in good and bad times. If you can do that, your official work becomes a less burden and operates smooth and fine. Trust begets trust and so love too!
- Never use the official property or equipment for your personal use no matter how urgent it is! This sets a beautiful example to others.
- Dedicate your talents-skills for the growth and prosperity of the organization you are working with high sense of honesty and integrity. Be open book.
- Clear positive thinking is only possible when you have the knowledge to handle the situation as described at the outset. You must attempt to acquire that knowledge continuously and progressively with your status and position. This is the only way to draw respect from all quarters for all levels of people.

- One must speak slowly-clearly-gently to your people-No shouting-no aggressive behavior at all times. It should never be out of context or sarcasm
- One should be an example personified-You must become lovable-adorable and respectable. This is the only way to become what you expect. You must be like Jaggery that attracts ants.
- One should adhere to the law of the land and be honest, sincere and truthful to the service and professional ethics. You should become a guide to your subordinates and colleagues.
- All actions and responsibilities discharged must satisfy whether it would support the organization and enhance the benefit and the quality of life of the society at large. There should be no self benefit involvement. This will lead to peace and stress less life.
- Some of the subjects described for students and teachers also hold good for these categories as well.

STUDENTS

- Their responsibility to their parents-teachers and institution as described in the teachers category
- Self belief to think positive and self esteem development.
- Reading-writing and speaking habits-choosing a good company.
- Service to the society and the needy-Their running top priority goal should be to study well and get good marks with distinction with no remarks-help their parents and support them later. Bring good name to the institution and the country.
- Sharing and caring with whatever they have. Limit their wants based on the resources of their parents.
- Ceiling on desires to the extent applicable not only limited to money matters but also energy and resources of nature as well.
- Awareness of dangers and nuisances of internet and social net works-face book etc.
- Respect to women in society-an insight in to Indian culture and spirituality.
- What is pleasant and what is good-difference
- What is great and what is good-difference
- What is love? Liking-attraction-infatuation-temporary pleasure and permanent problems?
- Speak about depression-causes-remedies-cures-suicidal tendency-How to avoid?

- Drugs-alcohol-smoking related health issues-remedies-prevention –counseling-where to approach and how?
- To have a set noble goals and work hard towards achieving them.
- Importance of Prayers directed towards their chosen belief.

What is most important and essential is at the end of the address by the nominated speaker-Our Organization members should summarize their talk with incidents and context as to what Bhagawan said under the circumstances in that particular subject.

Other Essential Things

- 1) The depictions of Bhagawan's saying at venues---please consider sayings from other religions and also form other religious/spiritual leaders as Swami loves this multi approach.
- 2) Distribution material of Swamis service projects in India-water-medical-educational-in writing and pictures- a Video for take home. A colorful brochure will do!
- 3) A book stall must be set up at every venue with Swamis literature plus other religious books as well@ 90%+ 10% proportion.
- 4) Consider an exhibition at the Venue of high quality-designed centrally.
- 5) Speakers must be sent their speech audio and his pictures after the programme-motivation magic.
- 6) Consider a question and answers session in these programmes.
- 7) Memento to speakers must be a high quality item-not in cost but in appearance- a permanent item that is small-may be a table item-not the conventional.
