Dear Sai Borthers,
Sairam!

It is really heartening that you as a team have developed the website of the organization which indeed goes a long way in presenting and preserving the work as well as information documents of our organization for years to come.

Personally and on behalf of the organization, I congratulate you first, and profusely thank you for the concerted effort put in by each one of you, indeed a land mark in service for the organization. I invoke the blessings of Swami on you and your families and pray that such more and more creative and innovative ventures should come out from you for the future of the organization.

I take this opportunity to express my high sense of appreciation and to thanks in particular to Sri D.Vishnu Vardhana Rao whose brain child this website is. I wish him and other members all the best.

With all love and Best Wishes....

Ever in Sai Seva
